

Privacy Policy for the Chiropractic Care Clinic Website

Chiropractic Care Clinic is committed to our patient's privacy. We have created this policy in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to you. The following discloses information gathering and dissemination practices for this website.

Disclosures

Chiropractic Care Clinic does not sell, nor distribute the information collected to 3rd party vendors, partners, or services. Information is held confidential and in-office. We maintain secure databases. Access to information in these databases is granted to our technologic personnel, all of which are bound by a legal confidential document.

If you wish to contact us by the information form provided, we only use the customer's contact information from the feedback form to send the user information about our services. The customer's contact information is also used to contact the visitor when necessary (ex: new site features, product promotions/specials, contest entries, press releases). Users may opt-out of receiving further mailings; see the opt-out section below.

Customer testimonials or pictures may be posted on our website, but only after the customer grants permission (through written statement) for us to do so.

Security

Our company feels that we have taken all available measures to make unauthorized access to information collected by the site secure. All information collected will be held internal and confidential.

Op-Out/Choice

Our site gives the users options for removing their information from our database to not receive future information or services.

You can e-mail your request to chiropracticcareclinic@yahoo.com with the subject Remove. You can also mail your request to the following address:
